Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

There is so much to celebrate in 2019. In the summer, Selamta established a new Kids' Center and began receiving children from the government institutions. These children, along with Selamta trained moms and aunties, will establish our second generation of Forever Families in 2020. Educationally, our children benefited from reading groups, team tutorials, SAT/GRE prep class, and attended new schools to meet their specific needs. From our first generation, seven students graduated from universities, colleges and vocational programs. Trauma informed care continues to be a major focus of our psychosocial team. Trauma informed care trainings for our team and group workshops for our moms and aunties have equipped our families with the tools they need to promote healing. Health & Wellness, another of the 4 cornerstones that build our foundation of family, included health care workshops, updated vaccinations, blood donations, and access to specialized care - often difficult to source in Ethiopia. Spiritually, our families continue to develop personal relationships with God through weekly Bible studies, Young Life Camp and leadership opportunities, English Summer Camp, mentor movie nights, and community/prayer groups. Eight youths launched to
